SMELL

Vanilla, the most popular scent in the world, is produced by the orchids of the genus Vanilla. It is a sweet, warm, and slightly spicy scent that is often used in perfumes and fragrances.

The scent of old books is a mix of many different scents, including the smell of the paper, the glue used in the binding, and the dust that has accumulated over time.

Don't have your hands
Don't have your hands in your mouth. It's a common habit, but it's not a good one. Your hands are covered in germs, and putting them in your mouth can make you sick.
